My dear Sir:-

I am preparing the list of members to be printed in the next Annual Proceedings. In this list the names are put in alphabetical order, and I would be very greatly obliged if you would kindly inform me whether your name should go in under the letter "H" or the letter "F."

My dear Mr. Belden:-

I have been writing yesterday

Regarding the name - I have legally adopted "Haughton Biddle" but, since it is not generally known, it might be better, for the present, to continue the name under "B"

I hope to get up to see you & Miss Baldwin next week

Kind regards

Sincerely yours

W. Langton Parker

When your cheque was received in response to my letter of August 15th we found on looking the matter up that you had been credited for your dues for 1919. With your permission I will therefore place this cheque to the credit of your dues for the coming year, and I am enclosing a receipt. Please pardon our oversight.

Very respectfully yours.
